North Carolina Regional Lacers

The North Carolina Regional Lacers (NCRL) is a regional group dedicated to the study and appreciation of all types of lace, but especially bobbin lace, needle lace, and tatting. We are composed of numerous local lace groups and meet twice a year for Lace Days. Its members also host lace workshops throughout the year. The NCRL is a charter group of the International Old Lacers Inc. (IOLI). Membership in the NCRL includes quarterly NCRL newsletters, biennial Directory/Handbook, and access to the NCRL Lace Library. Membership runs from July 1 to June 30. You receive all four issues of the Newsletter regardless of when you apply.

Dues are $15.00. Please fill out a membership form, along with cash or check payable to NCRL, and mail to the treasurer: Mary Alexion, 10410 Stone, Chapel Hill, NC 27517.
